

God put the wrong on him
who never did anything wrong, so we could be put right with God.

Words from Sandra

Do not conform to the pattern of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind. Then you will be able to test and approve what God's will is—his good, pleasing and perfect will.

Romans 12:2

This is the focus verse for our Spring Women's Retreat. After meeting with our guest speaker, Sallie Saxon, I am more excited than ever to have her share her journey. I had never met Sallie but our spirits connected as soon as we introduced ourselves. Helen Morris will once again lead us in worship. Helen is a special servant of God, attuned to the Holy Spirit's leading. I'm looking forward to seeing how the Lord leads Sallie and Helen to give us new direction and vision for each individual. If you are going, I'm so thankful, if you aren't, please pray for the following for the Retreat the weekend of April 24-26:

God would prepare hearts to encounter Him,

Good weather,

The Lord to be glorified, Health of each leader and lady attending,

Travel mercies, and,
That each attendee will be transformed in some way.

I'm so excited about our two new prayer support groups. In Clemmons at River Oaks Community Church, Room 4, led by Jeff and Sherye Hall, meeting each Thursday. They are studying the book "Prayers for Prodigals" by James Banks. In Sparta, at First Baptist Church, led by Joseph and Carolyn Caldwell. This group will meet Monday nights from 6:30-8pm.

We had the privilege of preparing 100 Easter Buckets for the Cherry Street Prisoners children and children in the Bronx. We will be mailing supplies for the Bronx outreach to reach the children with the truth of Jesus' death, burial, and resurrection. Please pray as each bucket and bag goes out.

It is such a pleasure to minister to you. Remember that the enemy will attempt to place all sorts of obstacles in your way and discourage you. The enemy will give you all sorts of reasons to cause you to doubt, to cause you to not attend church, to not attend a prayer support group meeting, or cause you to not go on a retreat. But stay focused on God, stay in prayer, don't give up! Give in to God and not the enemy! God has something special in place for you - don't miss His good, pleasing and perfect will!

We asked the question of some of our loved ones "What does the cross mean to you?" Here are their responses:

Sandra H.

"The cross represents my salvation. Praise God that our Christ is no longer on the cross!"

Susan Y.

"Salvation. Christ died for my sins."

Janet L.

"The cross means "Love", God's Love for us. God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten son to die on that cross for us so that we may have everlasting life with Him in Heaven. How great a love is this!"

Barbara B.

"Merciful love, God's grace and forgiveness forever."

Pat J.

"Redemption and eternal security."

Karen D.

"Sins forgiven, unconditional love and immeasurable hope."

Joan Y.

"An end that was the beginning."

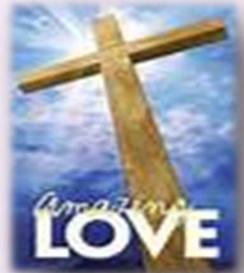

Joan F.

"Redemption and forgiveness; the debt I owed was paid."

As we approach the remembrance of Christ's death and resurrection, "Amazing love" comes to mind, for Jesus said in John 15:13: "Greater love has no one than this, than he lay down his life for his friends. Paul proclaims the good news of the gospel in 1 John 3:16: "This is how we know what love is, Jesus Christ laid down His life for us." Because He lives, we have eternal life though faith in Christ! The spotless Lamb, who was slain, became the sacrifice for our sins, and so with heartfelt gratitude we can sing: "Amazing love, how can it be, that thou my God should die for me!"

"Amazing Love!"

Tuesdays with Jesus

Join us for the Tuesdays with Jesus Bible Study, from 12:30 to 2:00pm at the On Wings offices. We are studying Stormie Omartian's "The Power of Praying for your Adult Children". Here is a quote from this encouraging study:

"Pray for the heart of each of your adult children to desire godly wisdom, discernment and revelation. These things are life changing and will benefit them greatly every day of their lives."

Christian Counseling

Janelle Jordan, a Christian Counselor, is available for counseling with On Wings loved ones. She will be at the On Wings offices, (455 S. Church St.) by appointment on Thursday and Friday between 11:00 am and 3:00 pm. Janelle has earned her Master's in Counseling. The counseling is pro bono but she can accept Blue Cross/Blue Shield insurance if you would like to file. To set an appointment, please contact Janelle at 336-341-6260.
