As the board sought God's vision for 2020 He spoke to my heart that His love was going to pour over our city, our prodigals, and over our office like a tsunami and overtake all in its path. We have prayer partners who have been at our office praying for just such an outpouring for months.

After explaining the vision to my artist friend Patti Sheets, she painted it on a large canvas displayed in our office. The wheat that you see is representative of the harvest ripe for gathering.

In the picture you will see what we see from our office window; the buildings in the city, the graves representing the prodigals with dry bones, and the wave is posed to overwhelm it all. We are believing that God is going to flood the hearts of all represented and bring in a great harvest in 2020.

Pray with us both for the city and our prodigals to repent, return to God, and humble themselves. Our vision is to also prayer walk our city in the unreached areas and reach out in love to see them set free. Believe that for your situation as well.

Hope is in the Lord

By Janet Revels

(A poem based on Romans 5: 1-11)

In times of strife and trial, when living is so hard,
I feel the Holy Spirit, leading me to worship God.
My Hope, my Love, my Power; over sin and trouble too.
Jesus paid my sin debt so I will trust and see it through.
Through pain and hurt and tears, I fix my eyes on God above.

To God be all the glory, I shall not doubt His love.
For even though I fail Him, as our human natures do,
God's love sent His Son, Jesus, to give hope to me and you.
Persevere in tribulation, knowing God, in Love and Grace,
Sent our Savior, Lord, Redeemer; Jesus Christ
to take our place.

Jesus bore the pain and suffering on a cross at Calvary
For sins He never committed, He died to set us free.

So, rejoice in tribulation, lift high the Holy One.
And we will see a blessing, when our trial is done.

To God be the Glory in all things and always.
Hope in Him will lead me onward even in the darkest days.

Sow in good soil...Reap a Crop

The man sowing is Jesus and the good seed are those who belong to the kingdom of God. The Lord has planted His people specifically where He can use their lives for God's glory. We are meant to shine out of the worldly darkness with the light of Jesus Christ. Our words, actions, and attitudes reflect the beautiful transformation of knowing God and being known by Him.

Jesus told them another parable: "The kingdom of heaven is like a man who sowed good seed in his field".

Matthew 13:24

Prayer Thoughts

Responding to Life's Storms

Scripture Reading: Psalm 107:23-32

How do you react in a thunderstorm? Do you tremble under the covers in fear? Or do you recall the words of Psalm 29: "The God of glory thunders...The voice of the LORD is majestic" (vv. 3-4)? Just as our responses to bad weather vary according to our perspective, so do our reactions to trials.

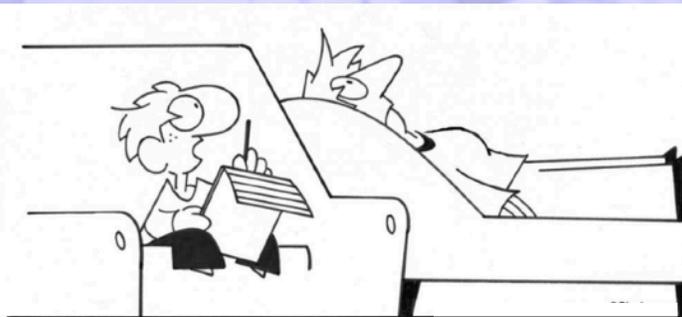

Life's storms can either stunt or accelerate our spiritual growth. The determining factor is our reaction. Some people humbly cry out to the Lord, while others get angry or frustrated with Him. Still others ignore Him and try to figure things out on their own, seeking solutions in every place except God's Word.

Turning away from the Lord results in a hardened heart for an unbeliever and discipline for a believer. God wants us to be surrendered to His will, because if we are proud or self-reliant, then we aren't useful for His glory. That's why He brings storms across our path--to teach us to rely on Him.

When the Lord allows adversity in your life, do you accept it as something designed for your good? Or do you try to bend God to your will? As difficult as they may be, storms are meant to produce godly character in us.

Let your roots grow down into him, and let your lives be built on him. Then your faith will grow strong in the truth you were taught, and you will overflow with thankfulness.

Colossians 2:7
